

Assistance with Publishing

Publishing in this day and age much easier than it used to be.

There are three different avenues you can choose. Traditionally published, Partner published, or Self-published, all publishing methods stem from the same base ingredient – a great manuscript.

I can be your guide and mentor, answering any questions you might have along the way. As you polish your manuscript, we will look at the various options of publication and what they mean to you and your work. I can help prepare you for submissions to traditional publishers. I can also mentor you to self-publish or assist you by partner publishing.

You will work closely with me for a set number of hours (spread within a particular time period) to help bring your work to its fullest fruition. Discussion may take place in person and/or via phone, Skype/Zoom and email.

Fees

I do ask for payment up-front for all mentorships. However, I am aware that this can be a financial strain if you require a lengthy mentorship, so please contact me if you would like to discuss the option of a payment plan. *If you only require your book to be typeset in preparation for self-publication please check my typesetting fees.

Subscribers to my site receive 15% discount on these fees.

3 hours - $380

5 hours - $700

NB. If mentorship is for a body of writing, reading time must be included in the length of mentorship you select. A rough indication of reading time is 10K words three hours, 35K words eight hours, 70K words + sixteen hours. Manuscripts over 100K words will require a very lengthy reading time. If your manuscript is longer than 100K words, please contact me to discuss whether a mentorship would be appropriate.
