

Mentorship Program

Writing, illustration, road to publication, art exhibitions, and business building.

You will work closely with me for a set number of hours (spread within a particular time period) to help bring your work to its fullest fruition. Discussion may take place in person and/or via phone, Skype/Zoom and email.

Fees

I do ask for payment up-front for all mentorships. However, I am aware that this can be a financial strain if you require a lengthy mentorship, so please contact me if you would like to discuss the option of a payment plan.

Subscribers to my site receive 15% discount on these fees.

NB. If mentorship is for a body of writing, reading time must be included in the length of mentorship you select. A rough indication of reading time is 10K words three hours, 35K words eight hours, 70K words + sixteen hours. Manuscripts over 100K words will require a very lengthy reading time. If your manuscript is longer than 100K words, please contact me to discuss whether a mentorship would be appropriate.
